Bruce R. Flanagan “GOOD SAMARITAN” Award:

- A REALTOR®, or Business Partner or Staff member of EPCAR or an individual not affiliated with the Association but whose contribution to the real estate industry has effectively enhanced the quality or use of real property.
- Recipient should be one whose unselfish participation and efforts in non-industry activities have been exemplary in charitable, civic, religious, educational, or political affairs. Recipient could also be one who has a strong influence in the enhancement of the arts, athletics, or recreation for the benefit of the public.
- Recipient’s individual achievements should be given major consideration, not one’s fame or prominence.
- If awarded posthumously, the recipient’s achievements should be recognized rather than the individual eulogized.
- Recognition of a whole way of life is the goal to be achieved in considering all qualifications.
